The Fifth University of Cambridge Postgraduate Conference in Language Research

Tuesday, 20 March 2007 and Wednesday, 21 March 2007
Cambridge, UK

The Fifth University of Cambridge Postgraduate Conference in Language Research (CamLing) is organised with the support of the University of Cambridge Institute of Language Research (CILR), the Department of Linguistics, the Research Centre for English and Applied Linguistics (RCEAL) and Cambridge University Press (CUP). This year's conference is being collocated with Computational Linguistics UK (CLUK). We invite postgraduate students to submit abstracts for oral and poster presentations on any topic of linguistic interest.

INVITED KEYNOTE SPEAKER
CamLing 2007 is delighted to welcome Professor Peter Austin of the School of Oriental and African Studies at the University of London as our invited keynote speaker.

DEADLINE
Abstracts must be received (not postmarked) by: Monday, 01 January 2007 5:00 PM GMT

No late submissions can be accepted. Authors will be notified of acceptance/rejection by 01 February 2007.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION
Abstracts may be submitted by e-mail or by post. All guidelines for formatting and submitting abstracts are available on the conference website (see below). Submissions that do not conform to these guidelines will not be considered.

REGISTRATION
All presenters and attendees must register for the conference. The deadline for pre-registration is Tuesday, 13 February 2007. Delegates are free to attend the CLUK keynote as well as any CLUK sessions occurring on the Tuesday. Further details are posted on the conference website.

PRESENTATION AND PUBLICATION
Oral presentations are allotted 20 minutes plus 10 minutes for questions. The poster session is allotted 45 minutes, though posters will be on display throughout the day. Guidelines for presentations are available on the conference website. Oral presentations are published in the CamLing Online Proceedings. Authors agree to provide camera-ready copy (up to 8 pages) by 25 May 2007.
