

THE SIXTH CAMBRIDGE POSTGRADUATE CONFERENCE IN LANGUAGE RESEARCH (CamLing2010)
7-8 December 2010, Computer Lab, Cambridge

PROGRAMME

| DAY 1: Tuesday 7 December 2010 | | |
|--------------------------------|--|---|
| 09.00 - 09.30 | Registration, Atrium | |
| 09.30 - 10.30 | Plenary talk, Lecture Theatre 2 Chair: Luna Filipović Dr Napoleon Katsos (Research Centre for English and Applied Linguistics, University of Cambridge) Psychology for linguists - Linguistics for psychologists | |
| 10.30 - 11.00 | Coffee break, Atrium | |
| | Session 1, Lecture Theatre 1 Chair: Minyao Huang | Session 2, Room FW11 Chair: Kelly Webb |
| 11.00 - 11.30 | Upsorn Tawilapakul (University of York): The application of optimality theoretic pragmatics to the reappraisal of the role of lɛw45 in Thai | Rana Alhusein Albark (University of York): Using an L1 allophonic contrast to discriminate an L2 phonemic contrast |
| 11.30 - 12.00 | Tohru Seraku (University of Oxford): On the polyfunctionality of copula sentences in Japanese | Sam Kirkham (University of Sheffield): The phonetics of /t/ in British Asian English |

| | | |
|---------------|--|---|
| 12.00 - 12.30 | Klaas Bentein (University of Ghent): Adjectival periphrasis in Ancient Greek | Maria Andreou, Katerina Panussi, and Olga Tzafea (University of Ioannina): The realisation of L*+H in Greek |
| 12.30 - 13.00 | Poster session, Atrium | |
| 13.00 - 14.00 | Lunch break, Atrium | |
| | Session 3, Lecture Theatre 1 Chair: Dimitris Michelioudakis | Session 4, Room FW11 Chair: Helen Engemann |
| 14.00 - 14.30 | Anastasiia Romanova (University of Milano-Bicocca/University of Groningen/University of Potsdam): Referential choice: distribution of subject types in aphasic speech | Ji Young Shim (University of York): Superiority in Turkish, Japanese and Korean |
| 14.30 - 15.00 | Joseph Mwansa (University of Leeds): The Bantu-Romance connection: a comparative study of the acquisition of object clitics/markers | Dilek Demirtaş (Atilim University): Motion event descriptions in English by Turkish EFL Instructors |
| 15.00 - 15.30 | Theoni Neokleous (University of Cambridge): The acquisition of enclisis-proclisis alternation: a study on early Cypriot Greek | Lian van Hoof (Radboud University Nijmegen/University of Tilburg): Shapes and placement of gestures by Germans in descriptions of motion events |
| 15.30 - 16.00 | Coffee break, Atrium | |
| | Session 5, Lecture Theatre 1 Chair: Jeffrey Watumull | Session 6, Room FW11 Chair: Norbert Vanek |
| 16.00 - 16.30 | Maris Camilleri (University of Essex): Relative constructions in Maltese | Luisa Roca-Varela (University of Santiago de Compostela): Intralinguistic false friends: British English and American English as a case in point |

| | | |
|---------------|---|---|
| 16.30 - 17.00 | Bruna Karla Pereira (Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais/CAPES Foundation/University of Cambridge): Post-nominal 'lá' in the DP-structure: a specificity marker | Cathy Lonngren-Sampaio (University of Hertfordshire): Bilingual encounters over the phone: a study of two bilingual children's code-switching practices in the negotiation of meaning |
| 17.00 - 17.30 | Man Ki Theodora Lee (University of York): Overt quantifier raising: Neg-wh-quantifiers in Cantonese | Constantina Fotiou (University of Essex): Code-choice between English and Cypriot Greek bilingual compound verbs: κάννω erase (I do erase) instead of διαγράφω (I erase) |
| 17.30 - 18.00 | | Daria Dayter (University of Bayreuth): Orality and literacy in verbal duelling: playing the dozens in 21 st century |
| | | |
| 19.15 - | Conference dinner, Selwyn College Hall | |
| | | |

| DAY 2: Wednesday 8 December 2010 | | |
|---|--|---|
| 09.30 - 10.30 | Plenary talk, Lecture Theatre 2 Chair: Petros Karatsareas Dr Philip Durkin (Principal Etymologist, Oxford English Dictionary) Etymology and lexis: in praise of uncertainty | |
| 10.30 - 11.00 | Coffee break, Atrium | |
| | Session 7, Lecture Theatre 2 Chair: Alastair Appleton | Session 8, Room FW26 Chair: Marco Aldo Piccolino Boniforti |
| 11.00 - 11.30 | George Walkden (University of Cambridge): Abduction or inertia? The logic of syntactic change | Ole Schützler (University of Bamberg): Statistical approaches to hierarchical data in sociophonetics |
| 11.30 - 12.00 | Gea Dreschler and Rosanne Hebing (Radboud University Nijmegen): Sentence beginnings: Present Day English versus Old English and Dutch | Kelly Webb (Bangor University): Realisation of primary lexical stress in Welsh English |
| 12.00 - 12.30 | Laura Bailey (Newcastle University): Latin word order and the EPP | Claire Nance (University of Glasgow): Acoustics and obsolescence in Scottish Gaelic stop consonants |
| 12.30 - 13.00 | Poster session, Atrium | |
| 13.00 - 14.00 | Lunch break, Atrium | |
| | Session 9, Lecture Theatre 2 Chair: Eleni Kapogianni | Session 10, Room FW26 Chair: Chris Veysey |
| 14.00 - 14.30 | Juha Mulli (University of Eastern Finland at Joensuu): Observations on German idioms containing einen as a constituent | Mojca Kompara (University of Ljubljana): Automatic recognition of abbreviations and abbreviations' expansions in multilingual electronic text |
| 14.30 - 15.00 | Jonathan Morris (University of Manchester): The linguistic behaviour of German migrants in German-speaking Switzerland | Ghada Mohamed (Lancaster University): Text classification of the BNC using corpus and statistical methods |

| | |
|---------------|--|
| 15.00 - 15.30 | Coffee break, Atrium |
| | |
| | 'Linguistics matters!' , Lecture Theatre 2 Workshop on linguistics and public engagement funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council |
| 15.30 - 16.15 | Invited talk Professor Peter L. Patrick (Department of Language and Linguistics, University of Essex) Linguistic rights in the asylum context |
| 16.15 - 16.45 | Round table discussion led by Petros Karatsareas and Elena Pala (Department of Linguistics; Cambridge Endangered Languages and Cultures Group) |
| | |
| 16.45 - 17.00 | Coffee break, Atrium |
| | |
| 17.00 - 17.45 | Invited talk Professor Richard Hudson (Department of Phonetics and Linguistics, University College London) Linguistics for education |
| 17.45 - 18.15 | Round table discussion led by Theoni Neokleous and Albertyna Paciorek (Research Centre for English and Applied Linguistics; Cambridge Bilingualism Information Network) |
| 18.15 - 18.30 | Concluding remarks |
| | |
| 18.30 - | Farewell wine reception sponsored by the Arts and Humanities Research Council, Atrium |
| | |

| POSTER PRESENTATIONS |
|---|
| Abdulaziz Alturki (Lancaster University): Morphological variability in L2 acquisition |
| Valeria Bandecchi (University College Dublin): Accomplishment and delimitedness in some manner of motion verbs |
| Morgan Macleod (University of Cambridge): Epistemic and deontic modality: a grammatical distinction? |
| Anna Marczak (Adam Mickiewicz University): A constraint-based model of word stress in PE acquisition |
| Anja Moos (University of Glasgow): Perception of voice quality by synaesthetes and non-synaesthetes |
| Daisuke Suzuki (Kyoto University): A functional analysis of the three adverbs certainly , surely and definitely |
| Ewa Trutkowski (University of Potsdam): Two types of topic-drop in German |
| Seda Yılmaz and Till Woerfel (University of Potsdam): Developmental comparison of lexicon in written narratives in Turkish and German of bilingual adolescents |